The Essential Career Research Database

The critically acclaimed Ferguson's Career Guidance Center features exclusive, wide-ranging content that is accessible and intuitively organized. Known for its unprecedented depth of coverage and variety of user-friendly content formats, this comprehensive career research database is broken down into three main sections: Job and Industry Profiles, Job-Hunting and Workplace Skills, and Career and Industry Resources. The material is drawn from a range of authoritative sources and is extensively indexed.

Highlights:

- Job and Industry Profiles: 94 industry profiles, organized by 16 Career Clusters created by the U.S. Department of Education, and nearly 3,400 job articles
- Job-Hunting and Workplace Skills: guidance on the essentials of getting a job and keeping it—establishing a career path, honing interview skills, writing résumés, and more
- Career and Industry Resources: more than 55,000 searchable, browsable resource entries, divided into convenient categories on fellowships, organizations, internships, scholarships, and awards
- School Searches: four comprehensive, current databases, provided by Peterson's Nelnet, LLC, covering undergraduate, graduate, nursing, and vocational and technical schools in the U.S. and Canada. Users can search for schools by type, region, areas of study, and a variety of other characteristics
- Career Interest Assessment: a test that ranks users' work interest areas and suggests related occupations and industries
- Links to Outside Jobs: access to current, live job postings.

Features:

- Nearly 300 videos covering jobs, industries, and career development skills
- Advice from nationally renowned author and career expert Sue Morem
- "My Life" interviews with professionals, giving a firsthand perspective on jobs
- Career Opportunities News, updated monthly
- Dictionary
- "Did You Mean...?" search feature
- Persistent record links
- Dynamic citations in MLA and Chicago Manual of Style formats.
