Fryer Library, the branch of the University of Queensland Library responsible for rare books, manuscripts and special collections, added significantly to its holdings in 2009 with the following material:

- A major addition to the Gwen Harwood collection (UQFL45). Fryer Library is very grateful to the Alumni Friends of UQ for their assistance with the purchase of this collection.
- Papers from Matthew Condon, well-known Queensland journalist and writer
- Additional material for the manuscript collection of Queensland poet Bruce Dawe (UQFL111)
- Additional material for the manuscript collection of science fiction writer Sean Williams (UQFL414)
- Papers from Elaine Smith, a prominent Australian refugee advocate, detailing the plight of refugees detained on Nauru. Her manuscript collection (UQFL446) will complement the existing Burnside/Durham collection (UQFL430) to make Fryer's research resources in this area unique in Australia.
- Brisbane artist Silvana Gardner added a large textile artwork entitled Madonna of the Springbrook Rain to her existing collection (UQFL261)
- Artist Gregory Rogers donated 43 artworks used for the covers of UQP press books, to increase the value and depth of Fryer's UQP holdings, which include a complete archive of the press's operations in 580 manuscript boxes (UQFL198).
- Valuable material was also acquired to add to the Ernestine Hill collection (UQFL18)
- Additional material for the Thomas Shapcott collection (UQFL56)
- Papers of Prof Douglas Lee, UQ's first professor of physiology who died in 2005 at the age of 100, donated by his family
- Papers of George Washington Power, a member of the first Senate of The University of Queensland, donated by his grandson
- Papers of Sir Llewellyn Edwards, UQ's former Vice-Chancellor
- Papers from the estate of Val Vallis, Queensland poet and long-serving UQ academic
- Architectural plans and records from Maurice Hurst, a well-known Sunshine Coast architect
- Architectural plans and records from Brisbane architects John Dalton and Stuart McIntosh
- A significant collection of rare early editions of the works of Mrs Campbell Praed, probably Queensland's most important writer before Federation, donated by Dr Chris Tiffin.
