UQFL114
Transport Workers’ Union of Australia Queensland Branch Collection

Size
1 box

Contents
Meeting minutes, on microfilm

Biography
The Queensland Branch of the Transport Workers’ Union of Australia was formed in 1907, whilst the Federal Union was established in 1906. It has also been known as the Federated Carters’ and Drivers’ Union, Federated Carters’ and Drivers’ Industrial Union, and the Amalgamated Road Transport Workers’ Union of Australia, and changed to its current name in 1939.

Notes
Open access

Box 1A – 1B

Minutes, April 1914 to Nov 1973. 8 Microfilm reels. Between November 1947 and August 1931 the committee was known as Board of Control. Copied from the originals held by the Union.

Minutes, Sep 1915 to Feb 1960. Includes general committee minutes September 1915 to February 1937. Copied from originals held by the Union.