UQFL 172
Denis Kennedy collection

Size
2 boxes

Contents
Business records of the Toombul Vineyard, owned by the Childs family. Articles and research material on the history of the Nudgee-Toombul district.

Biography
Denis Kennedy was a resident and historian of the Nudgee-Toombul district.

Notes
Open access

Box 1
Information sheet on the Childs family wine business, including some details of the Toombul Vineyard at Nudgee.

Photocopied accounts book detailing transactions with customers of D.J. Childs, wine maker and wine wholesaler and retailer of Nundah, Queensland, 1877-1890. An index to account holders is provided at the beginning.

Box 2
13 folders of articles, information sheets and copied primary sources relating to the history of the Nudgee-Toombul-Nundah district.
Folders are labelled:
Banyo
Churches
Early Settlers
Family Trees
Industries - Primary
Industries – Secondary
Northgate/Virginia
Nudgee
Nudgee School Register
Nundah
Scrapbook [contains photocopied pages from the St Francis Parish Magazine]
Sources [contains a history of Zillmere, Aspley, Geebung and Bald Hills, a centenary history of Nudgee State School, and a history of the Upper Albert River]
State Schools