Judith McKay Collection

Size	25 boxes
Contents	Research material for a National Estate study of war memorials in Queensland and for the publication Lest we forget: a guide to the conservation of war memorials , compiled by Judith McKay and Richard Allom.
Date range	[1919] to 1984
Biography	Judith McKay is a curator with the Queensland Museum, Brisbane. She has been a curator with the Australian War Memorial and consultant for a National Estate study of war memorials in Queensland. Since the mid 1980's McKay has published several works focusing on Queensland's architectural heritage, women artists and culinary history.
Notes	Open access See index at the end of this listing to locate memorials dedicated to individual units. A bound print listing provides an alphabetically arranged list of towns and localities as a finding aid, not reproduced here. Ask for this print listing at the Fryer information desk.
