Biography
Laurie Duggan was born in 1949 and obtained a PhD in Fine Arts in 1999 from Melbourne University. He worked as a movie scriptwriter (1978-1983) and an art critic (for the Times on Sunday, 1986-1987). In 1987 he participated in a reading tour of the USA and Canada organized by the Australia Council and the Department of Foreign Affairs, and in 1990 he was a guest at the Wellington NZ Festival of the Arts. He was poetry editor for Meanjin from June 1994 to December 1997. From 2002 to 2008 he was an Honorary Research Advisor at the Australian Studies Centre and the School of English, Media Studies and Art History, University of Queensland. He has published many books of poems as well as literary criticism and articles on art, architecture and cultural history. In 2006 Duggan moved to the United Kingdom.

• A university essay on contemporary Australian poetry written by Laurie Duggan with comments by Dennis Douglas; two pub crawl itineraries written (or co-written) and illustrated by Laurie Duggan. Note by Laurie Duggan: The one making a circuit around Sydney University was meant to be a parody of the kinds of illustrated books universities used to sell to alumni.

Box 4

Various literary drafts (cont’d):

• ‘The Go-Poet’, 14 interviews Note by Laurie Duggan: These were done mostly in Canberra in the early 1980s. The idea was to get poets to answer the kinds of questions teen magazines (like Go Set) asked of rock stars in the 1960s. The responding poets were Laurie Duggan (x2), John Scott (x2), Martin Johnston, John Tranter, Alan Wearne, Ken Bolton, John Forbes, Alan Gould, Mark O’Connor (Canberra), Mark O’Connor (Sydney), John Garnett, Barbara Atkinson. Not all the poets were enthused about this – one of them even asked that I never make the material public (though why he then went ahead and filled out the questionnaire I’ll never know). [Access to this material is restricted. Application for access to restricted material may be submitted to the Fryer Librarian for consideration]
• Draft, ‘They Can’t Take That Away From Me’, 1980 (folder)
• Various drafts and rejects 1985-1994, (folder)

• Draft of a section of Memorials (Workin’), 1992 with notes by John Forbes, (folder)
• Occasional pieces, uncollected comic and satirical pieces, 1980-1999 (folder)
• ‘The Amazing Adventures of Dick Dada’, 1984, collage consisting of reproductions of paintings and figures cut and pasted from the newspaper comic, ‘The Potts’ with added dialogue, in red hand bound folder
• Translations, mostly from the Italian (drafts with attached notes by Inez [?], Italian teacher at the Centre for Italian Studies, Carlton, Melbourne, 1988-c1990 (folder)
• Drafts of ‘British Columbia Field notes’, June 2002, typed on A4, originally titled ‘Northwest Passages’ (folder)
