Trevers Drake Collection

Size 2 boxes

Contents Notebooks created by University of Queensland classics student Trevers Drake, containing handwritten lecture and study notes on the Greek and Latin classics.

Date range 1918 to 1920

Biography After attending Brisbane Girls' Grammar School, Trevers Kinnaird Drake (later Thelander) enrolled in an Arts degree at the University of Queensland in 1917. She completed courses in Latin, Greek, English, Logic, and Ethics and Metaphysics before commencing honours in 1919. She graduated with second class honours in classics in 1920.

Notes Open access

Box 1

Notebook 1
Lecture notes on classic literature and Greek philosophy, 1918-1920

Notebook 2
Notes on Cicero and Pliny the Younger, 1919

Notebook 3
Lecture notes on Greek and Roman ancient and classical history, 1919, and a copy of the timetable for University of Queensland final honours examinations, Mar 1920

Notebook 4
Notes on Aeschylus and Sophocles, 1919

Notebook 5
Notes on Tibullus and Catullus, 1919-1920
Box 2

Notebook 6
Notes on Herodotus and Theocritus, c1919

Notebook 7
Notes on Thucydides and Aristophanes, c1919

Notebook 8
Notes on Horace and Tacitus, c1919

Notebook 9 (fragile)
Notes on classical Greek and Latin literature and history, c1919

Notebook 10
Notes on personal finances

Notebook 11
Largely empty notebook containing a transcription of a poem, ‘Chance Encounter’ by Carol Paine, on the inside front cover, nd