UQFL473
Construction Forestry Mining and Energy Union Mining and Energy Division Collection

Size
5 boxes

Contents
Transcripts of proceedings before the Coal Industry Tribunal, 1949 to 1951

Date range
1949 to 1951

Biography
The Mining and Energy Division of the CFMEU is the main trade union of mineworkers in Australia. Formerly the Australasian Coal and Shale Employees' Federation, the union traces its history as a national organisation back to 1915. Its predecessors date back to the 1850s.

Notes
Open access

---

Box 1
Transcript of proceedings before the Coal Industry Tribunal in the matter of an application by the Australasian Coal and Shale Employees' Federation for a 35 hour week, and related disputes. 2 volumes, covering proceedings from 13 September to 12 December 1949.

Box 2
Transcript of proceedings before the Coal Industry Tribunal in the matter of an application by the Australasian Coal and Shale Employees' Federation re wages, rates and conditions of employment, referred to as the national log of claims. 2 volumes, covering proceedings from 5 July to 15 August 1950. Other volumes in boxes 3 and 4.

Box 3
Transcript of proceedings before the Coal Industry Tribunal in the matter of an application by the Australasian Coal and Shale Employees' Federation re wages, rates and conditions of employment, referred to as the national log of claims. 2 volumes, covering proceedings from 21 August to 11 October 1950. Other volumes in boxes 2 and 4.

Box 4
Transcript of proceedings before the Coal Industry Tribunal in the matter of an application by the Australasian Coal and Shale Employees' Federation re wages, rates and conditions of employment, referred to as the national log of claims. 2 volumes, covering proceedings from 12 October to 20 December 1950. Other volumes in boxes 2 and 3.
Box 5
Transcript of proceedings before the Coal Industry Tribunal in the matter of an application by the Australasian Coal and Shale Employees' Federation for a review of decisions of the Tribunal made on 20 December 1950 and 26 January 1951, referred to as the Incentive Award. 2 volumes, covering proceedings from 27 March to 27 April 1951.