Biography
George Landon Dann was born in Queensland in 1904. He was a draughtsman and a member of the military forces as well as a playwright. His career as a dramatist started with "In Beauty it is finished" in 1931. Most of Dann’s plays won or gained places in competitions, including a first prize for "No Incense Rising" in 1938 at the Dramatists' Club of Australia competition, which was judged in London.
