Biography

Judith Rodriguez was born Judith Green in Perth, Western Australia in 1936 and died in Melbourne in 2018. She was educated at the Universities of Queensland and Cambridge. Judith Rodriguez has lectured in English in the West Indies, America, England (at Girton College Cambridge) and Australia (at the University of Queensland). She has also conducted professional writing courses. A poet and anthologist she has been writer-in-residence at Ormond College, University of Melbourne, Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology and Rollins College, Florida, and worked as a publisher’s reader, editor and poetry reviewer for the Sydney Morning Herald. From 1965 to 1985 Judith Rodriguez was tutor in English literature at LaTrobe University in Melbourne, at the Macarthur Institute in Sydney, and at Victoria College in Melbourne since 1989. She has published essays and reviews in numerous journals and papers such as Meanjin, Australian Literary Studies, Lip and the Sydney Morning Herald, and her work appears in Outback Press’s anthology, Mother I’m Rooted (1975) and in The Oxford Book of Australian Love Poems (1993). In 1974 Judith Rodriguez began to make decorative woodcuts and linocuts, some of which are now included in her works. She has compiled a poetry writing course, 1976, and edited the Foundations of Professional Writing series from 1988 to 1989. Judith Rodriguez was poetry editor of Meanjin from 1979 to 1982, and has been editor of the Penguin Australian Poetry series since 1989. Judith Rodriguez is the recipient of the 1978 inaugural South Australia Biennial Prize for Literature, the International PEN/Peter Stuyvesant Prize for Poetry, and the Shell/Artlook Prize. Some of her works include: Nu-Plastik Fanfare Red : And Other Poems (1973), Water Life (1976), Shadow on Glass (1978), Mudcrab at Gambaro’s (1980), Witch Heart (1982), Floridian Poems (1986), New and Selected Poems: The House by Water (1988) and The Cold (1992). Other collaborative works include: Four Poets : David Malouf, Don Maynard, Judith Green, Rodney Hall (1962) and Noela Hjorth (1984), with Vicki Pauli.
